Re: Valencia et al v. Three Star on First et al
Case N. 1:20-cv-08562-VEC

Dear Judge Caproni,

Please accept this correspondence as a request for a Nine-day extension of time of the December 30, 2020 deadline to file the Order to Show Cause why default judgment should not be entered against defendants.

This court previously ordered the above application to be filed no later then December 11, 2020. On December 11, 2020, I filed a request for a default that contained procedural errors that need to be corrected. I also indicated that I was having interactivity issues in my remote office that were hindering compliance.

Thereafter, this Honorable Court directed my office to file the default Order to Show Cause on or before December 30, 2020.

Since that time, this office has continued to have issues with internet interactivity. despite raising the issue with my current provider, the problems persist.

For this reason, I have chosen a new internet service provider who will be installing new connections and equipment over this weekend.

Also, I will be spending time with family over the Christmas Holidays.

So, as not to have any issues making the Default application on a timely basis, I respectfully request that the time for the Default application be extended until no later then January 8, 2021.

There is no prejudice to defendants who have not appeared in this matter.

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM J. RITA, ESQ.
